Faith Creative Names (FCN) currently supplies 7 charter schools with school uniforms and caps and gowns for graduation. FCN also supplies other non-profit organizations and businesses with apparel and promotional products, including branded hats, polo shirts and t-shirts. FCN are currently in conversations with Albany Leadership Charter (ALC) Middle and High School for Girls as they are looking to supply ALC with school uniforms as they are currently only supplying their caps and gowns. Providing uniforms could lead to an estimated $32,000 a year client.

Main clients include Albany Community Charter School, Green Tech, and the Puerto Rican and Hispanic Youth Leadership Institute. FCN understands the importance of maintaining and expanding relationships as this is crucial to future sustainability. The three organizations are responsible for a large percentage of their $177,000 in 2022 revenue. They are currently working with them on an order for 600+/- summer T-shirts for the students.

Newer clients include the Science and Technology Team at Fulton Montgomery Community College (FMCC). FCN looks forward to supplying the team with more items as they grow, and continuing the relationship with FMCC as they add more teams.

The College of St. Rose utilizes FCN for t-shirts and other graduation-focused items. FCN is working with St. Rose to provide more items beyond the school year beyond the two annual graduations.

Albany High School has started utilizing FCN for branded apparel for the students. FCN feels this account has the potential over the next two years to be a $50,000 a year client if not more. FCN holds regular meetings with the Athletic Director and Albany High Staff to foster a closer relationship to supply the Athletic Team and other clubs with apparel and branded promotional products.

Albany High School has started utilizing FCN for branded apparel for the students. This account has the potential to become a $50k/yr client over the next 2 years, if not more. FCN holds regular meetings with the Athletic Director and Albany High Staff to foster a closer relationship to supply the athletic team and other clubs with apparel and promotional products.

Last year, FCN began a partnership with Albany Leadership for Girls (ALG), selling them caps and gowns for their graduation ceremonies. FCN hopes to expand offerings for ALG until they are selling a minimum of $32,000/yr. (Deanalee shared some communications with Mr. Catalano)

FCN has also started a business relationship with Destine Preparatory Charter School in Schenectady. The school will be adding another grade of about 100 students each school year. The plan is to continue discussions to offer more apparel and promotional products they may want to purchase.

Based on this request by the ACBDC Board, FCN is going to spend the time preparing a more robust plan to connect with additional schools in the area and region where the company feels they can offer value. Deanalee and John have a son that recently graduated from college with a degree in business and their daughter Johanna is currently working on her MBA at the College of Saint Rose. With the help of two of their older children, the Campbells hope to bring on additional clients and more importantly expand their current relationships. Examples of former clients that have not ordered products in 2022 would be, but not limited, to Pine Hills Elementary, Thomas O'Brien and Harbor Hill Elementary Schools as FCN have increased their product offerings and there may be opportunities to re-establish a relationship.

FCN is a certified MWBE and have been providing bid contracts, they plan to connect with more governmental agencies to let them know about their suite of embroidered products and promotional product offerings. Their goal is to grow this segment to $323,000 in revenue over the next 2 to 3 years.

Working together, Deanalee and Johanna prepared a SWOT analysis of FCN, they determined:

Strengths:

- Excellent customer service
- Strong relationship with suppliers
- Parity on quality of clothing offered compared to the competition (Smiths and Lodges)
- Certified Black and Women Owned-Business
- We are the only company that offer Caps and Gown in the area.

Weaknesses:

- Wait times can be too long and need to addressed and shortened where possible
- Product offering selection is smaller than competitors.
- Brand awareness is low compared to Lodges.

Opportunities:

- New charter schools are opening and existing charter schools are expanding in the region.
- Graduation supplies, cap and gowns, class t-shirts and sweatshirts
- T-Shirts to public school teams and clubs.
- MWBE certification and selling to state agencies. (plan to work with Upstate NY Black Chamber to narrow NACIS codes to better describe their offerings)
- Join the Upstate NY Black Chamber and the Albany Black Chamber for networking and relationship building, with the hope of leading to sales.

Threats:

- Competitors are well established, Lodges has been operating for over 120 years
- Small printing and embroidery shops are opening in the region as barriers to entry can be low.

By completing a SWOT analysis, they have determined that:

- FCN can leverage existing relationships and strong customer service to meet with prospective schools and state agencies.
- They feel their clothing selection will increase as revenues increase.

- Wait times need to decrease, as it adversely affects overall customer satisfaction.
- They should leverage the MWBE status.
- The market is increasing with the addition of new Charter Schools opening and existing Charter Schools adding additional class rooms and grades.
- FNC Competitive position is weak compared to Lodges and Smiths, this should be a focus to increase name and brand awareness of FCN.

Goals:

- Increase revenue by increasing market share.
- Develop prospect list and assign sales to one individual.
- Reduce wait times and build out an inventory system.
- Apply for a $25,000 grant at Capitalize Albany for $25,000 to purchase 2 new embroidery machines.
- Continue to work with Central Bid for a $15,000 grant for property and façade improvements.
- Increase brand awareness for FCN.
- Increase revenues annually, by adding new clients and increase product offerings to current clients.

Revenue projections:

2023	2024	2025
$250,000.00	$350,000.00	$500,000.00
